

Go to GATE: five workshops for accessible tourism

Agenda

Wednesday, November 4th - 3pm CET

Accessible tourism: four case-studies

In this first workshop, lead partner UNESCO Dolomites Foundation will give an overview of the GATE project and introduce other projects that focus on “attentive” tourism carried out by members of the GATE Community of Interest (CoI):

- Accessible Dolomites by Sportfund
- Ethical tourism by Villa Angaran / Luoghi Comuni
- Cultural tourism by Local Democracy Agency Mostar

This workshop will take place in English.

Wednesday, November 18th - 3pm CET (ENG)

Handicap, Disabilities & Inclusion

In the second workshop, project partner Salzburg Research will present in detail the GATE project results; while Association Conca d'Oro will share their expertise on ensuring the effective participation in society of persons with disabilities, and Cooperativa Margherita -both an ALDA member and part of the GATE CoI- will bring to the table its experience with the Mind Inclusion 2.0 project on fostering the competencies of educators of intellectually disabled people and on the development of an innovative web platform. This workshop will take place in English and also be part of the ALDA Talks series, with greetings from the UNESCO Dolomites Foundation.

Wednesday, November 25th - 3pm CET (ITA)

Handicap, Disabilità & Inclusione

A similar yet different workshop will be hosted in Italian as a third appointment, with GATE partners CAI Alpagò and Independent L. taking the lead in presenting the outcomes of the project, and Cooperativa Margherita bringing its contribution again on the Mind Inclusion 2.0 project and its newly developed app. This workshop will take place in Italian and also be part of the ALDA Talks series, with greetings from the UNESCO Dolomites Foundation.

Wednesday, December 2nd - 3pm CET (ENG)

Best Practices on Inclusive Tourism

For the fourth event in the series, the conversation will move to a more technical level with highly practical recommendations specifically dedicated to those municipalities, civil society organisations, NPOs and other stakeholders that wish to adopt the best practices of the project and of its partner experts in their local communities. Project partner, the University of Innsbruck will be bringing that forth alongside Col expert members, Progetto V.I.S.O. Viaggiamo Insieme Superiamo Ostacoli of "Centro Studi l'Uomo e l'Ambiente" and Red Carpet For All, including a presentation of the GATE Help Desk for all to consult. This workshop will take place in English, with greetings from the UNESCO Dolomites Foundation.

Wednesday, December 9th - 3pm CET (ITA)

Buone Pratiche di Turismo Inclusivo

The last workshop in the series, finally, will provide highly practical recommendations and best practices for implementation at the local level in Italian, thanks to the expertise of GATE partner the Municipality of Santorso and of Col expert members Village for All and Red Carpet For All. This workshop will take place in Italian, with greetings from the UNESCO Dolomites Foundation.

All workshops are free upon registration. Click HERE to register now and book your chance to learn more and discuss accessible, inclusive tourism for everyone! For more information, please contact eva@aldaintranet.org.
